Open Question:

What environmental issues have you worked on? What will be your top environmental priority for the 2021 legislative session?

- I have not yet held elective office so I have not been able to directly vote on environmental legislation. I believe that CT needs to transition to renewable energy sources swiftly and that urgent investment in that transition would also create jobs and help our economy. We also need to facilitate retraining of fossil fuels workers into green energy jobs. From the perspective of residents, accessing green energy is also unnecessarily difficult, we need to make that easier. If the process for consumers were facilitated, many more of us would opt to even pay a bit more for green energy. The option to switch to green energy should appear on every utility bill.

Additional Comments:

- Bluntly, I believe in robust environmental policies and will consistently vote with CTLCV on the issues describe above. My opponent in this race is Irene Haines who has a 58% rating from you. I am a progressive Democrat running in a district that leans conservative but which has a lot of bipartisan supporters of environmental conservation. I seek your endorsement because I genuinely believe that conservation of our environment is paramount (especially in the face of climate change) and I know that your endorsement could make a notable difference in this race. I support the CTLCV positions that are in this questionnaire and will do so publicly. I understand if you are hesitant to endorse me on the basis of viability as I am seeking to unseat an incumbent. I cannot guarantee the outcome of this race but I believe that the current political landscape gives us a chance to flip the 34th district since national politics will drive up the turnout of progressives and other Democrats this year. If we want to unseat the current 34th representative, now is the time to do so. The strength of her incumbency will only grow once she is reelected for the first time. Thank you for the opportunity to seek your endorsement and for the detailed explanation of the issues that are a priority to CTLCV.
